XING recommends:

The XING Plugin to import your contacts

Our Plugin enables you to upload your address book contacts to XING quickly and with ease. Simply match your addresses from Microsoft Outlook, Microsoft Exchange or Lotus Notes with XING and invite people from your address book.

XING says “Bienvenido eConozco”!

The time has finally come: XING would like to welcome all members from the Spanish/Latin American network eConozco. From now on, all former eConozco members will be able to use XING. The merger of XING and eConozco means that you now have access to even more qualified business professionals around the world. We’re looking forward to “feliz” networking in future!

Best wishes,
Your XING team
